The Colgate women's ice hockey program boasts four players who have been selected by either USA Hockey or Hockey Canada to compete in its development camps and on its national teams.

In 2004, goalkeeper Rebecca Lahar was named to the USA Hockey Under-22 roster. Lahar backstopped the U.S. to two victories over Canada in the Under-22 Championship to win the best of three set, which took place in Lake Placid, N.Y., and Burlington, Vt.

In 2005, Tara French and Becky Irvine were two of 40 players who were invited to the Hockey Canada Under-22 Conditioning Camp in Calgary. French was named to the 2005 Canadian National Women's Under-22 roster and played against Canada's National Women's Olympic Centralized Team in a three-game series. Later, Irvine received word she had made the U-22 team that would play at the 2006 European Air Canada Cup in Ravensburg, Germany. The Canadians won the Cup, defeating Finland and Switzerland.

French was again invited to participate in the U-22 Camp in 2006 in Ottawa. She became the first Colgate skater to be invited to a national team camp, as she was one of 57 players asked to compete at the 2006 National Women's Team Fall Festival in Kenora, Ont. She joined 18 Olympic Gold Medalists from the 2006 Olympics at the camp, who vied for a place on the Canada's Women's National Team for events during the 2006-07 season, including the 2006 Four Nations Cup in November and 2007 IIHF World Women's Championship.

Sam Hunt became the fourth Raider to represent her county when she was selected to the Canadian U-22 team in 2007. Her journey began as one of 46 selected to attend the Strength and Conditioning/Skating Camp, and was one of 36 players that was asked to move on to the Selection Camp. She was named to the roster at the camp's conclusion.

Canada swept the U.S. in a three-game exhibition series in Lake Placid. In the final game of the series, Hunt scored the overtime game winner for Canada.
